Vol. 2 No. 6

Praise's of the Month

Hallelujah and praise the Lord. The greatest praise this month is that our Lord and Savior miraculously saved Brother Davies, Loveness and their son from a car fire. The car that His Will Ministry help provide last year caught on fire. Brother Davies was on his way to the Radio station to pick a CD of our 's and his program and they were stopped at a road block. When they started up again they heard a noise and the police shouted that the car was on fire. They got out of the car and called the fire dept. It took 40 minutes for the fireman to arrive. Needless to say the car was a total loss. But Brother Davies is praising the Lord for the miraculous saving of him and his family. In Africa you cannot insure a car over 10 years old for fire or theft. This will put a hardship on our outreach in Africa. If the Lord leads you to help with this need for Africa please just note on your love gift that it is to go to the African needs. Our second praise for the month is that by now you should have noticed how nice the newsletter looks. PRAISE OUR LORD we finally got the printer fixed. It was the laser unit. This has been such a trial for us. Being in Pinedale Wyoming it costs $75.00 per hour and $.75 per mile for the repairman to come. When your repairman is over 100 miles away it gets expensive. So again Praise God. Our final praise for the month is that daughter Sharol has graduated with her Masters in Social Work and is already working with a summer camp for under privileged kids. She is so excited that she can share her story and faith with the kids and encourage them to keep going and hopefully come to Jesus

Mary's Thoughts for the Month

Since June is traditionally the month of weddings it makes me think of the upcoming marriage supper of the lamb. As you know scripture refers to believers as 'the Bride of Christ', Jesus is our returning bridegroom. In a traditional Jewish wedding ceremony the bride and bridegroom are betrothed and the bridegroom returns to his father's house to begin preparing a place for his new bride. After a period of waiting (not even the bride knows when to expect the bridegroom's return) the bridegroom receives his Father's permission to go get his bride. He leads a grand procession of friends and relatives down the street of the bride's residence to collect her, with shofars and harps announcing his arrival. She must be ready to go with him at all times. She actually spends the months or year of waiting preparing herself for him. Her mother helps her stay prepared for him, her girlfriends help her stay focused. When the bridegroom collects his bride, they proceed to his father's house for a huge feast and celebration. Does this remind you of what is waiting for us? After Jesus' resurrection, He returned to heaven (his Father's house) to prepare a place for us (His bride). He promised to return for us (with the blowing of the trumpet and a grand procession) and take us to His Father's house for the great marriage supper of the lamb. Here we, His bride will be presented as clean and spotless (being covered with His righteousness and washed in His blood). So my question to you this month is how are you spending your preparation period waiting for Jesus. You need to continually cultivate your love relationship with Jesus during the time you are waiting for His return. Read His love letter to you often (the Bible), communicate with Him continually (through prayer and just talking to Him), most of all spend time worshipping and adoring Him. Sing love songs to Him, tell Him how He has won your heart and you cannot wait to see Him. These are all things that brides do to prepare themselves for their bridegrooms.

I want to wish all of the dad's a Happy Father's Day (especially my sweetie who I believe is one of the best dad's around). We have been blessed so much with five wonderful children, each one of them has taught us something of God's great grace and love. We mention them often in our newsletters. Here they are in chronological order: Melanie is my first daughter and baby (always holding a special place in my heart), next up is Neil (you saw pictures of him in Sept.03 newsletter getting married to wife Carina), then there is Sharol (you saw pictures of her and Melanie and Melanie's husband Mike in Jan. 03 newsletter, they came up for Christmas that year) last but not least are Joy and Jessica, the youngest and twins (Jessica is mom of the three grandbabies, Spencer 4, Wade, 2, and Adryanna who just turned one in March) Joy and Sharol are not married yet. We also have two son-in-laws, Mike who is Melanie's husband and Clint who is Jessica's husband. It is always our dream to gather them together at the same time for a family photo. When we do, know that it will be included in a newsletter. Someday.

Love in Christ Mary.

Pastor's Corner

When I look into my wife's eyes I see her love for me, when I read the words of our Father and His son Jesus I realize just how much they love me. The word love occurs 156 times in the King James in the New Testament. If you add all endings it occurs 202 times. I think my favorite is still -- John 3:16-19 (KJV) ¹⁶For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁷For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. ¹⁸He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. ¹⁹And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. Doesn't it just give you the warm fuzzies to think that God loved you and I so much that he would let his only son die for us. As we approach fathers day this year I think just how much my God loves us. As a father no matter how mad I ever got at the kids I would have never thought to hurt them. Oh, yes they did get spanked when they were in trouble, but most of the time all it took was "that look". As Isaiah tells us: Isaiah 55:8-9 (KJV) For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. ⁹For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. This Saturday I got the privilege to witness to a couple who do not believe that Jesus is the "way, the truth, the life and no one comes to the Father except through the son". One of the things I was telling them was, that as far as I knew my father was suffering in Hell at this moment. Dad was the son of a Methodist Missionary. Dad was put into boarding school at a young age so his father could go overseas to preach. Because of this, my father grew to resent the Lord for taking his father away. No matter how I and our family would witness to dad eventually he would get mad and tell us he did not want to talk about it. Did my dad accept Jesus as his Savior and Lord in his last days? No one knows for sure because he did not tell any of us about it. I would like to think that my dad is happy in heaven but I must believe Jesus' words. "He that believe not on Him is condemned". I did get to talk to dad the night he died. I did not know it would be the last time I would get to talk to him. My mom called concerned about dad's health. I talked to dad and he seemed fine. What I did not realize was being 16 hours from them, dad had been hiding the true condition of his health from me. I did get to tell dad that night I loved him, but I did not tell him just one more time how much Jesus loved him. I was awakened at 2 am by a strange voice on the other end of the phone. It asked "if this was Jay Warner", I answered "yes", they answered " Jay your dad's dead" and the rest is history.

My friends if your parents, sisters, brothers, etc. are not saved please don't give up. You may still win them! Never, never let that chance to tell someone how much Jesus loves them go by, because it may be your last chance. Oh yes, because I know where I am going when it is all over this son would gladly give his live now to save his father.

Happy fathers days guys.

Down Home Advice from The desk of Reverend George

It seems that everyone is looking for something. This isn't anything new, I mean it has been going on for ages. A lot of people are looking without really even knowing what they are looking for. Sure they know they aren't happy with their current situation. But they just don't know what it would really take to make that change, so they could be truly be happy.

Everyone is frantically searching for the ultimate in satisfaction for his or her life. I mean just think about it for a minute just here in America we can see people strive to do better, have more and be happier than their neighbor next door. To most of them it doesn't seem to matter where they get their satisfaction, or might I say try to get it. Some might try to find it in the material things houses, cars, and boats the list just keeps going on and on. While others bury themselves in a commitment of some type whether it be work, play, or family. Now don't get me wrong there is nothing wrong with being a good worker, having fun or being a family oriented person. Then there is another group that is simply in denial. Which I believe is their own form of searching without being held accountable for not finding their true objective.

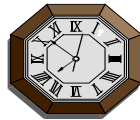

Now I know that I am no psychologist and be that as it may, it doesn't change the fact that a lot of people are still longing for that something more. It has been this way for quite some time. The only thing that has changed is we seemed to have lost sight of what we are searching for. I mean we have traded our values as people in on a complete new set. See, looking for fulfillment is an age old longing in the human soul. Just take a look in the Gospel of John 1:19 "And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? 1:20 "And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ." What John openly admitted was that he was not what they were looking for. I know, now you are thinking I have gotten off from my subject right, wrong. The point to all that I have said until now is it just may not be something we are looking for, but rather someone. See all of the houses, cars, jobs, family events, group meetings, wine, whiskey, and beer, not to mention all of the drugs that have been done in this exhausted search for the better life has been a waste of time. The only thing that will make anyone's life complete is a personal relationship with Christ. You will never find satisfaction until you first form this relationship. O.K. if that is not plain enough I will just flat-line it to you. You can never be happy even though you have gained the whole world if you have lost the most important thing, your soul. Matthew 10:28 "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." If you have sentenced yourself to the worse torture that anyone can conceive of in the life to come, how can you truly be happy now? The answer is pretty obvious you can't. You might act like it for a while, but you will never truly be happy until you have taken care of what is to happen with your soul after you have passed from this life, as we know it. Even though many a people have tried to make it seem hard to know for sure what happens after your life ends on earth, the Bible shows us clearly what happens either way we choose to go. So why should we take what the Bible says on this subject or any other for that matter to be the truth? Well there is only one reason that I can think of, it has never been proven wrong on anything that is written within it's pages. Although many people have tried to prove God's word wrong, all of them failed miserably. The simple truth is, the more we find out about our ancestors the more the Bible keeps being proved to be right. Like it or not it is the truth. That doesn't mean necessarily what you have thought or heard that the Bible says is right. But what it does mean is what the Bible really says is right. That's why we are told to know what it says instead of taking someone else's word for it. Please don't take my word for it, instead look at 2nd. Timothy 2:15 "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." God doesn't want his word to be misread or misquoted. That doesn't mean that it never happens, it does all too often. So I have said all of this just to tell you that the satisfaction you have been looking for, God has already taken care of. He had it put into words that even a small child can understand let's look at a few of them John 3:16 explains it pretty well. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." And why is this so important to you? Well, let's look at John 3:15 and 3:17 the verse before and the verse after. John 3:15 ""That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life." John 3:17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved." If you have not accepted Christ here is the real reason you're not happy you have already condemned yourself. John 3:18 "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." No one can be happy if they are already condemned. Still don't believe me? Well then just ask any prisoner that is condemned to death, and awaiting sentence to be carried out. You might look at it this way, without Christ you are in the same position that condemned prisoner is in. The choice is yours and the good news is you will live forever. But the bad news is without Christ you will be being tortured in hell for eternity.

Faith when nothing else works

Have you ever been at the end of you rope, so to speak, I have many times. It seems that when the Lord truly wants to get my attention He lets me do things that get me to the end of my rope. I have been so close to the end of my rope during my life I was sure that I heard each and every strand of the rope individually breaking. Counting them plink, plink, plink wondering which plink would be my last.

I am reminded what Solomon said in Ecclesiastes. Ecclesiastes 4:9-11 (KJV) ⁹Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour. ¹⁰For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. ¹¹Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone? When we are "hanging in there" we are not doing it alone! Our Lord promises us that 1 Corinthians 10:13 (NASB) ¹³No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it. Our Lord loves us so much that when we are sent through temptations and trials He will not let us be overcome. He will make sure that we can endure it. So then you may ask why do so many fail and fall away? Why do so many give in to temptation? Because we do not have the faith in God to endure until the end. Jesus said " he who endures to the end will be saved". Many times humans fail and fall away from the Lord because they will not endure to the end. Notice I said "will not" not could not. If we believe that the word of God is true and faithful then it was not God's fault. We are told " but with temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure". We can endure if we have that three fold cord talked about in Ecclesiastes 4:12 ¹²And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. In our camp meeting sermon series Evangelist Dale Smith preached on the 3 fold cord. He took a rope and made three strands out of it. Then he tied it to a cross bar and attached a heavy load. As he talked about trials and temptations in life he cut one more of the strands that made up the 3 fold cord. Each time the people gasped waiting for the load to drop. Finally he preached how we lose our faith in God and try to make it ourselves. When he cut that last strand "God's strand" the thickest, the strongest, that heavy load came crashing down. You talk about our Lord's sense of humor, right at that moment a loud thunder crash happened. I thought we were going to lose several of the older members of our group.

My point is who are our eyes upon? Our situations, or on the Lord? Each and every time we take our eyes off the Lord and put them on the world we open the door for us to stumble. We open up the door that weakens our faith. When you're hanging at the end of that rope and you can hear each and every plink, plink, plink as the strands break. As you get closer to that final fall are you clawing at the rope trying to get above the weak spot? Are you not admitting you need help by saying "go ahead and make my day, I work better under pressure"! Or are you saying praises to Jesus because he is in control and will not let you fall? He promised that those who endure to the end will be saved. Jesus came because he loved us enough to give us life more abundantly. But he can not give us life more abundantly if we do not hold onto that faith and know that He will provide as He promised. Our God is never late. He often shows up at the last minute just to test our faith.

When this pastor has found himself hanging from the last few strands and is counting the plink, plink, plink of the strands breaking, he is singing praises and knows Jesus is in control. He knows that when that last plink happens and he is falling that the hand of Jesus is just below him to catch him. Will you let Jesus catch you?

Praise you Jesus for all the trials to build our faith. Thy will be done Lord Jesus.

HE THAT DWELLETH
Psalm 91

¹ He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

² I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

³ Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

⁴ He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

⁵ Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

⁶ Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

⁷ A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

⁸ Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

As we sit down, remain in, settle ourselves, and are married to this hidden place in the elevated lofty Supreme God, consider the result. We will remain and continue in the shade and defense of the burly, powerful, Almighty.

Here we are, at some point each of us came to our point of need. God revealed to us that we needed a savior, and gave us faith to believe His Word, and call upon Jesus, asking for salvation. At last there is peace in my heart! God loves me and has a plan for my life! Wow, we are so joyful and trusting that we are on cloud nine. We are believing God that every mountain in our way will be moved, that as we step in, the waters will roll back. We start out in faith, and the first time things don't go the way we think they should have in our own understanding we think it doesn't work, or that we have missed God. DON'T STOP! Sit back down, remain in, settle in, and let's stay married to this place that is hidden unto all those whom that don't know the only Savior, Jesus Christ. This place of believing God, resting in His work.

Psalms 119 describes our relationship with the word of God and the many benefits that we have as a result. This describes God's Word over and over as this place of safe keeping. If you don't know Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord of your life then this is just another good book and it doesn't have the power within itself, apart from the Almighty, to save us or to keep us. Starting with salvation and repentance from sin, this place of staying in God's word, and prayer, and peace, and contentment is our continuing confidence and guidance through God's Holy Spirit. Do exactly what this psalm says, meditate in it, respect it, keep it, learn it, and so on. We not only hear of the destruction, and the warnings to fear God to escape judgment, but we hear of the many benefits we have in Christ. Some folks don't understand how you can have a relationship with a God that doesn't seem to be there when you need Him or He doesn't seem to care. Some will say, "What good does it do?" Hebrews 11:6 says, "But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." We must believe that God cares about us and has a plan for our lives. And if we continue, not having received the promises, just as Abraham did in Hebrews 11:13, God puts His righteousness on our account. But we must turn away from our sins, and come to God on His terms. Do we call Him Lord and do not do what He says? Sin separates us from God. And if we harbor sin we will surely walk away from God's protection. It was this sin that drove Christ to the cross. If we are truly sorry for our sin we must turn away.

The whole armor of God is exactly that, God's armor. What soldier supplies his own equipment? After he is issued his rifle doesn't it still belong to the issuing party? And the same with the rest of the armor of Ephesians chapter 6 should apply. Are we at the point of Eph 6:10-18? Do I exchange my strength for His strength, as in, Be strong in the Lord? By waiting upon God our strength is changed, by believing, and abiding. Is the belt of truth (God's word) intact about our hips, to the point that I don't make a move without it? Is our heart protected with the breastplate of righteousness, covered with Christ's righteousness, and in our own lives turning away from sin? Notice in Ephesians 6 that part of our armour is knowing how to share the gospel, and we are ready before we go out. Above all, taking the shield of faith, here we are again. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God. Rom 10:17. On our jobs we wouldn't think of going without our hardhats, or going on a motorcycle without a helmet, and so our helmet of salvation must be kept in place, only through Christ. Only with this helmet in place can we do battle in the heavenly realm. The sword of the Spirit, is not only our defense, it is our authority and confidence as well. It is the very weapon that Jesus used and that will never fail till all be fulfilled. After we've done all to stand, such as putting on God's armor, let us remain standing for the One who bought us with His blood. Praying the Word, standing on the Word, remaining in the Word, we are to stand and pray. Revelation talks about our prayers coming before God's throne. Hebrews 4:16 says that we should come boldly before God's throne to obtain the mercy and grace we need. There is a place of protection and strength that will never fail. No foe will be able to break in and plunder. If my hope is in my comfort that will surely fail. If my hope is in my health that can fail, after all, we are appointed already once to die. Meditate in these scriptures that we have mentioned here and you too, with God's help, will receive strength and boldness to carry on. Not only for your strength and confidence, and for your peace, but as Peter encourages us, "be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." (1Pet 3:15) If I am in the midst of the storm yet my mind and my hope is dwelling in the secret place of the Most High, and I am not afraid, is this not a testimony to the world around us that God's grace is sufficient. Remember Acts 17:11 that these were more noble in that they received God's word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures to make sure these things were so..

God Bless, Bro Scott

TEACHING OF THE MONTH

Are You Rapture Ready

My what an exciting time we are living in. With everything that is happening in this day and age, who knows what to expect next? I don't know what is going to be the next big headline in the newspaper, but I do know what is in store for the world as far as Bible prophecy is concerned. The rapture is the next big event for all Christians to be looking forward too. Even though you might know it by another name such as caught up, or called away, it still is what is to take place next in the grand scheme of things to come. The real question is are you ready for it to happen? Let's take a look at what the Bible has to say about being ready to be caught up. So how are we really to prepare ourselves, well first we are to attend church. The Bible tell us clearly and in no uncertain terms we should do this and on a regular basis and why. Here is what Hebrews 10:25 has to tell us. “Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some [is]; but exhorting [one another]: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.” We are also to partake of the Lord's Supper in such a way that we should not only be remembering him but also thinking about his return. The Bible tells us in 1 Cor. 11:25-26 “After the same manner also [he took] the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink [it], in remembrance of me. 11:26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. “ We are also to show love toward believers and all men. Look at 1 Thess 3:12-13 “And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all [men], even as we [do] toward you: 3:13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.” I guess that means we had better be putting up those so called Holy Ghost Machine Guns, and show a little unconditional love toward our fellow man. Next we are to be patient with one another. Wait you mean love is not enough we have to be patient too? It would seem so or at least this is what James 5:8-9 has to say.” Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. 5:9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door. “ Well it seems that there are some pretty strict rules we as Christians need to be living under. I hope that everyone is following what the Bible has to say about being ready for the return of our glorious King. If we look a little further into the word, we would find that we are to live separate lives from the rest of the world. Here is what Titus 2:12-13 has to tell us. Teaching us that, “denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; 2:13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; “2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine Then after we become separated from the world we are not to be so quick in the judging of others. Or at least this is what I am getting out of 1 Cor. 4:4-5 “For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. 4:5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.” Also we are called to preach the word of God to this lost* and dying world until the Lord returns. Look at what 2 Tim 4:1-4 has to teach us about this. “I charge [thee] therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; 4:3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; 4:4 And they shall turn away [their] ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.” I am not saying everyone is to stand in the pulpit. But we are to preach to our neighbors. After all you might be the only way that they will ever hear sound gospel, instead of some kind of vain babbling. After all this is why we are to study to show ourselves approved as shown to us in 2 Tim.2:15-16. “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 2:16 But shun profane [and] vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.” In fact it almost seems that we are to do whatever it takes to win souls for Christ. I have heard, and even said in the past fear is not a good tactic for soul winning. Here I am proved to be very wrong in my thoughts in Jude. It would seem we should do whatever it takes to save someone from the pits of Hell. Here is what Jude has to tell us in verses 21-23. “Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. 1:22 And of some have compassion, making a difference: 1:23 And others save with fear, pulling out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. “ Well it seems that the Bible is pretty clear on what each of us is to be doing in preparing for the rapture. The real question is, are we willing to do what it has to say or not. There is a payday coming and no one knows exactly when it will be. However, this one thing is for certain we all will receive our just payday whether it be to live with Christ or to be doomed to the fiery pits of hell. Either way we have made the choice for ourselves. It would seem that the question we all need to ask ourselves, is have we really prepared for the calling away of the saints, as we have been taught to do? So whether you're rapture ready or not Christ is soon to return. I will leave you with that thought.

Love ya Rev G.A.

I'M GOING TO FOLLOW YOU

Walk a little plainer, Daddy,
Said a little boy so frail,
For I'm following in your footsteps,
And I don't want to fail.
Sometimes your steps are very plain,
Sometimes they're hard to see,
So walk a little plainer, Daddy,
For you are leading me.
I know that you once walked this way
Many, many years ago,
And what you did along the way
I'd really like to know.
For sometimes when I'm tempted,
I don't know what to do,
So walk a little plainer, Daddy;
You know I'm following you.
Someday when I'm grown up,
You are like I want to be;
Then I will have a little boy
Who'll want to follow me.
And I would want to lead him right
And help him to be true,
So walk a little plainer, Daddy,
I'm going to follow you.
